Prime Lambs - 1400

The overcast cold day wasn't enough to dampen the market with plenty of buyers in the market for prime lambs. The quality was outstanding which was reflected in the prices. The heavy lamb market hit some new highs with many selling at $130 and up to $157 for the top pen. Medium type lambs were low in numbers and were also well sought after.

Tops	$135 - $157
Good	$125 - $130
Mediums	$115 - $125
Light	$95 - $105

Prime Ewes - 1000

The quantity hitting the market is on the rise as is the quality. The market was steady on earlier sales with several buyers keeping it ticking along.

Tops	$110 - $127
Good	$93 - $100
Mediums	$80 - $90
Light	$60 - $70

Store Sheep - 750

A tidy line up of store lambs hit the market this week and were met by steady demand. With buyers all wanting lambs in different weight bands the market steadied on previous weeks. The first SIL ewes are hitting the market selling from $115 to $130. 2000 to 3000 are due into the sale yards next week.

Tops	$90 - $96
Good	$80 - $90
Mediums	$70 - $80
Light	$65 - $70

Prime Cattle (per Kg) - 30

A small yarding of prime stock was met by a steady market on previous weeks. Smaller yardings reflecting the time of year.

Steers	$2.25 - $2.43
Heifers	$2.19 - $2.30
Cows	$1.02 - $1.55
Bulls	$1.70 - $2.16

Store Cattle - 24

Small yarding of store cattle with a mix of both age and breed. The light yarding had no lines to indicate the market.

2yr Steers	$2.02
2yr Heifers	$1.89
Steer Calves	$2.40
Heifer Calves	$2.20
