Prime Lambs - 1500

A cold blast of wet weather certainly didn't dampen the prime lamb market. The larger yarding of 1500 lambs wasn't enough to be spread around the buyers which saw strong competition and prices firmed yet again for medium and lighter lambs which rose $2 to $3 per head whilst heavy lambs remained steady.

Tops	$140 - $156
Good	$128 - $138
Mediums	$115 - $125
Light	$105 - $112

Prime Ewes - 680

A quality market of ewes met the gallery of buyers at Coalgate this week with the feature being ewes out of the Rakaia Gorge. Medium type ewes lifted $2 per head.

Tops	$120 - $127
Good	$95 - $110
Mediums	$85 - $95
Light	$65 - $75

Store Lambs - 500

Numbers were up slightly on last week. A tidy yarding of crossbred and fine wool bred lambs sold strongly to a larger bench of buyers than has been seen in previous weeks which saw the market lift by $1 to $2 per head.

Tops	$100 - $109
Good	$92 - $100
Mediums	$82 - $90
Light	$75 - $80

Prime Cattle (per Kg) -70

Steady market on last week with some good lines of Angus Steers topping the sale at $2.53 per kg.

Steers                $2.39 - $2.53

Heifers             $2.30 - $2.46

Cows                $1.25 - $1.60

Store Cattle

Very small yarding met with little demand.

2yr Steers         $1.95
